

CLASSROOM TEACHER [4th Grade]

Naval Academy Primary and Secondary (NAPS) is seeking a 4th Grade Classroom Teacher who is passionate about fostering academic growth, independence, and critical thinking skills. This full-time position involves creating a challenging yet supportive learning environment where students develop a strong foundation in core subjects while strengthening their problem-solving and collaboration skills.

At NAPS, we pride ourselves on providing a structured and nurturing environment tailored to meet the unique needs of each child. Our small class sizes and skilled faculty ensure every student feels supported, empowered, and prepared to succeed in middle school, high school, and beyond.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develop and deliver engaging lessons in reading, writing, mathematics, science, and social studies.
- Integrate technology and hands-on learning experiences to deepen student understanding.
- Foster a classroom culture of curiosity, collaboration, and responsibility.
- Use assessments to track progress, differentiate instruction, and support student growth.
- Guide students in building executive functioning skills such as organization, time management, and study habits.
- Communicate regularly with parents regarding student progress and classroom activities.

IDEAL CANDIDATE CHARACTERISTICS:

- Committed to NAPS's mission of providing a nurturing, structured environment that supports the holistic growth of students.
- Demonstrates empathy, patience, and a nurturing approach to meet the needs of children from diverse backgrounds, including military families.
- Proficient in adapting teaching methods to individual learning styles and fostering a love of learning in students.
- Skilled in integrating technology into the classroom to enhance the learning experience.
- A self-starter who collaborates effectively within a professional, growth-oriented teaching team.

ABOUT NAVAL ACADEMY PRIMARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOL (NAPS):

NAPS is dedicated to fostering the intellectual, physical, emotional, and social development of children in Annapolis and the surrounding communities. Our small class sizes enable teachers to provide individualized attention, catering to each child's unique strengths and challenges.

Our faculty, which includes military spouses and parents, is uniquely equipped to support students through transitions and to cultivate a safe, nurturing, and stimulating environment. The curriculum is enriched by special programs such as Art, Technology, French, Library, Music, Physical Education, and Mindfulness, all of which are designed to create lifelong learners and responsible citizens.

We value the engagement of parents as partners in their children's educational experience, offering numerous opportunities for involvement through classroom activities, field trips, fundraising, and community events. Supported by a dedicated Board of Trustees, NAPS is committed to ensuring a safe, welcoming, and sustainable environment for every child.

We serve those that serve.
